

A Living Sacrifice

Romans: The Power of the Gospel

Passage: Romans 12:1-2

Pastor Brandt Overman | October 04, 2026

I. Respond to God's Call: Daily Surrender

II. Worship and Glorify God Daily

III. Filtering through God's Will

IV. Knowing God's Will For Your Life

MISSIONAL COMMUNITY QUESTIONS

1. What stood out to you most from Romans 12:1–2, and why?
2. What do you think Paul means by being a “living sacrifice”?
3. Why is it sometimes difficult for us to completely surrender ourselves to God?
4. How would you explain the difference between attending worship and living a life of worship?
5. What is the difference between being conformed to the world and being transformed by God?

PERSONAL REFLECTION QUESTION

1. What has God done for me that should lead me to respond with greater surrender?
2. Have I truly surrendered my whole life to God, or are there areas I still want to control?
3. Do my words, attitudes, decisions, and actions reflect that I belong to Christ?
4. Is anything in my life more important to me than God?
5. Am I allowing God to transform me, or am I simply trying harder to change myself?
6. Do I trust that God's will is good, pleasing, and perfect even when I don't understand it?

A Living Sacrifice

Romans: The Power of the Gospel

Passage: Romans 12:1-2

Pastor Brandt Overman | October 03, 2026

I. Respond to God's Call: Daily Surrender

II. Worship and Glorify God Daily

III. Filtering through God's Will

IV. Knowing God's Will For Your Life

MISSIONAL COMMUNITY QUESTIONS

1. What stood out to you most from Romans 12:1–2, and why?
2. What do you think Paul means by being a “living sacrifice”?
3. Why is it sometimes difficult for us to completely surrender ourselves to God?
4. How would you explain the difference between attending worship and living a life of worship?
5. What is the difference between being conformed to the world and being transformed by God?

PERSONAL REFLECTION QUESTION

1. What has God done for me that should lead me to respond with greater surrender?
2. Have I truly surrendered my whole life to God, or are there areas I still want to control?
3. Do my words, attitudes, decisions, and actions reflect that I belong to Christ?
4. Is anything in my life more important to me than God?
5. Am I allowing God to transform me, or am I simply trying harder to change myself?
6. Do I trust that God's will is good, pleasing, and perfect even when I don't understand it?